

Current Position: Emeritus Professor International Development
University of Greenwich

George Rothschild is an Emeritus Professor of International Development at the University of Greenwich. Among other busy roles, George acts as an adviser to DFID on several programs—including their Research Into Use program for up-scaling and out-scaling research outputs across Sub-Saharan Africa and South Asia—and advises the Executive Board of the Forum for Agricultural Research in Africa on networks, partnerships and alliances.

Other previous activities:

- CGIAR: Australian head of donor delegation to CGIAR (7 years); Member - CGIAR Working Group on Forestry/Agroforestry; CGIAR Working Group on Livestock; Crop Protection Panel of Technical Advisory Committee of CGIAR, CGIAR Finance Committee. Chair - International IPM Task Force for Technical Advisory Committee of CGIAR. Established and headed group that created the CG Centre for International Forestry Research, (CIFOR) in Indonesia.:
- Member of: Committee for International Plant Protection Congresses; Australian Cotton Research and Development Council; Board of Management of Australian Animal Health Laboratory; Advisory Committee of CSIRO Division of Horticulture; CSIRO /Department of Primary Industries Liaison Committee; Chairman - Advisory Committee, Australian Centre for Resource and Environmental Studies CRES, Australian National University), Visiting Fellow, Australian National University 1980- onwards

Awards:

Elected Fellow of the Australian Academy of Technological Sciences
Elected Honorary Fellow of the Royal Entomological Society

Publications: Over 90 publications in journals and book chapters, 2 books (majority- published before end of full-time professional career at IRRI in 1998)