

PIETRO VEGLIO

SWITZERLAND

Current Position: Consultant

Dr. Pietro Veglio is currently Chair of the Evaluation Committee established by the Swiss State Secretariat for Economic Affairs (SECO) to oversee independent evaluation of its Program on economic cooperation and development with developing countries, Eastern Europe and Central Asia and the new member states of the EU. He also serves as a member of the CIAT Board. He served as a Board member of the Swiss Export Credit Insurance (SERV), Zurich, Switzerland as well as private consultant, and as Visiting Professor at University of St. Gallen, Switzerland -- Master program in International Affairs and at Università della Svizzera Italiana (USI), Lugano, Switzerland -- Master programs of Facoltà di scienze della comunicazione and Facoltà di scienze economiche. He was also Executive Director for Azerbaijan, Kyrgyz Republic, Poland, Serbia and Montenegro, Switzerland, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, Uzbekistan, The World Bank Group, Washington, D.C. He was also Advisor to the Swiss Executive Director, World Bank, Washington D.C. and his main responsibilities were:

Bank operations in LAC, SAS, EAP; CODE and CODE Sub-Committee; ARPP; OED; QAG; IDA-11 Replenishment; Sector policies and projects: Basic and Secondary Education and Social Development, Energy, Environment, Public Sector Management, Agriculture and Rural Development, Resettlement and Rehabilitation and Adjustment Operations. Several missions to World Bank project sites.

He was Chief, Latin America Dept., Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation (SDC), Bern, Switzerland. Responsible for planning and implementing SDC programs in LAC, in particular in Bolivia, Peru, Central America, Ecuador, and Haiti as well as for regional activities in different areas. During this period: Alternate Governor for Switzerland at the Inter-American Development Bank (IDB).