Call for Nominations for The Crawford Fund Fellowship 2012

The Crawford Fund is now calling for nominations for the Crawford Fund Fellowship for 2012

The Crawford Fund Fellowship has been set up to provide further training for an agricultural scientist whose work has shown potential. This prestigious Award provides an opportunity for the successful candidate to spend a period of focussed study and training in Australia, with resulting benefits to the Awardee as well as to their country's agriculture and Australia. Candidates should be below the age of 35 and from a selected group of developing countries (Bangladesh, Bhutan, Burma, Cambodia, East Timor, Fiji, Indonesia, Laos, Nepal, Niue, Papua New Guinea, Samoa, Solomon Islands, Tonga, Tuvalu, Kiribati, Vanuatu or Vietnam). The training will take place at an Australian institution and will emphasise the application of knowledge to increase agricultural production in the Fellow's home country. Please note that nominations require the support of an Australian citizen and the Officer-in-Charge of the nominees Institute or Department. Nomination forms can be requested from Marchien van Oostende at the Crawford Fund office.

Closing Date

The closing date for nominations for the 2012 Fellowship is close of business on 29 June 2012. Late nominations and self-nominations will not be accepted.
